Date: Day:

1) Lord George Gordon Byron

He is know to be the most popular among the romantic poet. His poetic impact, mostly because of his charming personality and profession, made it way across Europe and lasted for a long time. He was the only poet of Romantic age who did not rebel against 18 century poet, but rather he was the critique of the poet of his own time, his contemporaries, That is why he is know as romantic paradox.

Work

1. Child Harold pilgrimage.
2. Don Jaun

12

2) Percy Bysshe Shelley

percy Bysshe Shelley is famous because of his idealistic approch and perspective. Love was his driving force to produce poetry. He condemned the political institution, Ruler of the world with great vigor because he saw the ugly in them. He was poet even chose to lead largely isolated, solitary lives. Ralph wald Emerson wrote an essay called Self Reliance in 1841 describing the importance of determing you own path and relaying on you own resources.

Date: Day:

Major Writters

10

William Wordsworth

Wordsworth is known to be the greatest poet of the romantic Era. Wordworth experimented a lot with poetry. Wordworth was deeply influenced by the natural beauty of his surronding, which would later become a central theme in his poetry. Wordworth poetry is best known for his emphasis on nature, the rural landscape, common man. innocence of childs. His work often explore the relationship b/w individual and the natural world, portraying nature as a living force of liberty, equality and democracy inspiring French people to challenge the existing social order.

Date: Day:

Economic and Francesi Debt

France's huge debt from war and extravagant royal spending lead to financial crisis, combined with heavy taxes on the poor, created widespread poverty, sparking the revolution.

Taxation :- The burden of taxation fell heavily on the common people (Third Estate) who were already struggling financially while the nobility and clergy were exempt, contribution to revolution.

2

Reforms

The mindset of people were change. They come united to throwout the King Louis.

Society

i) Famine :- Severe food shortage and high bread prices sparked widespread discontent.

ii) Religion :

The Catholic Church, a dominant

Date: Day:

of revolutionary ideas, nature. and was inspire by spirit for every living creature.

Work

1. Adonais
2. Prometheus unbound
3. ode to west wind
4. The Revolt of islam.

13

3) John Keat

John Keat is often said to be pure poet b/c he wrote poetry Solely for the purpose of poetry not for reforming or revolving. He devote himself to poetry. Keats was in love with beauty and glorified nature in his ode

Work

1. Ode to the Nightingale
2. The ode to Autumn
3. Eve of St. Agnes
4. Endymion, Hyperion Titanic, olympician God.

absolute truth which was more permanent and more divine than everything discovered with the rational mind. They questioned the nation that there could be any single truth.

5) Idealisation of women

In the romantic era, women were seen as innocent, pure creature who should be admired & respected. Many romantic poet and novelists centered their narrative around celebrating the purity & beauty of woman.

6) Purity of childhood

Romanticist believe that children should be allowed to have a pure happychildhood. At the time many children were forced to work in factories which was dangerous and grueling work for which they were paid extremely low wages. Romantic writer depicted to different kind of childhood - a happy one full of play instead of work.

in 1973 in the storming of Bastiles prison.
Thus the dead of Louis (XVI) the feudal privileges system also ended.
After Louis (XVI) Rise and Fall of Radical government. Led macmilren come to rule. They rule in France for 1 year. He also act violence on people. So tha's why they also be executed.
Eventually the military general Nepolean Bonapart. He ruled for 10 years. His rule had positives → Napolonic Code (Civil law reforms)
→ Centeralize adminstration → Economic reforms.

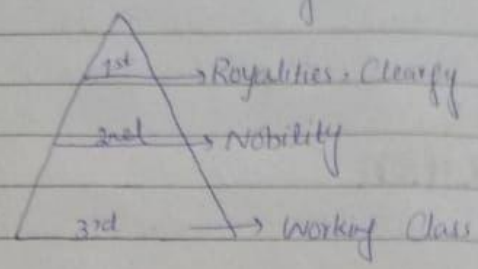
Industrial Revolution (1750-1830)

The industrial revolution was a period when production change from hard work to machine work. Before this period, most goods were made by hands at home or in small workshops. After the industrial revolution

Date: Day:

institution was seen as aligned with the oppressive monarchy and nobility.

iii) Class :- Society was divided into three estates Nobility (1st), Clergy (2nd) and Commoners (3rd) with the 3rd bearing the taxes.



Key slogans

Liberty, Equality, Fraternity was the core slogans, symbolizing the revolution's ideals.

Liberty :- Freedom from oppressions and absolute monarchy.

Equality :- Equall rights and opportunities for all citizens.

Fraternity :- Solidarity and unity among the people.

The Revolution led to

King louis (XVI) were executed

Date: Day:

Romantic age (novelist - prose writers)

1) Jane Austen

Jane Austen brought a rational balance and a good sense in english novels. The novel of 18 century where very much inclined toward the imaginary good things and romantic side of life. Jane Austen perfected and simplified the style of novel writting. She live a simple life and wrote her six expectional novels while staying anonymous.

Work

She started writting her novel pride and prejudice the same time.

1) Sense and sensibility
2) Emma 14

2) Sir Walter Scott

Romantic poetry became popular because of him. His poetry didn't have imagination as the main element like other poetry of this time. He poetry was more inclined toward narrative and storytelling and that is what made it popular.

7) Spirtuality & the occult

Romanticist were interested in the Infinite and the divine. As a result Romanticism began to include occult and supernatural elements. Many Romantic poems and stories involve some aspect of the mystrical or gothic.

8) Break from Convention

Romantic writer believe that indivual should be allow to decide what and how they wanted to write, instead of following formal rule and Classical Convention. Many romantic poet such as William Wordsworth and Samuel tylor Coleridge broke the Convention of the time. They wrote poetry that use the language of ordinary speech and felt like a normal Conversation.

9) Celebration of Indivual

Many romanticist saw themselve as self riant, independent indivual who stood apart from the rest of society and some

3:20 PM

You
15 photos • March 27, 2026

age (1748-1832)

How romantic age influence in engl literature. lo just discuss its historical background.

French Revolution (1789-1799)

The French Revolution was a pivotal event in history, marking the end of the absolute monarchy and rise of modern democratic state.

Cause:-

i) Morality :- The perceived immorality and corruption of King Louis (XVI) and Marie Antoinette like lavish spending and scandals fueled public outrage and justified rebellion against the monarchy.

ii) Transparency

The government's secrecy and lack of accountability in financial dealing made people suspicious, fueling discontent and anger, which contributed to the revolution.

iii) Enlightment thought (1688-1815)

Enlightment thinker like Rousseau and voltaire spread idea of liberty Inspiring

the exi

Econom

France's extravagan financial heavy ta widespread revolution

Taxatio

fell h (Third struggling and Contributio

Reform

The
They Co
the Kin

Socit

i) Famil
and widespre

ii) Religion
The

7:43 PM

Date: Day:

of liberty, equality and democracy
Inspiring French people to challenge the existing social order.

goods were produced in large factories using machine.

Causes :- i) Industrialization

More People demand for more goods. Thus the human/manual labour work Can be replaced by machine, factories.

2) Urbanization

More People move toward Cities for employment and better Jobs

3) Technological Innovations

French adopted new machines and technologies so new machine made production faster.

4) Steam engine / Spinning wheel

Steam engine and spinning wheel boosting textile productio

Effects :-

The effects of industrialization is good but at same time have Some negative effects:

1) Living Condition

Poor workers faced overcrowding and health issue in urban areas.

Date: Day:

Moreover, his poetry had a youthful sense, heroic character and succession of adventures. historical novel also become its work.

Work

1. Lady of the lake
2. The lay of the last minstrel

Prose Writters

1) Charles lamb

Charles lamb is the personality who is most loveable in history of english literature. He was an honest and selfless person and lived a simple life full of humanity. He took care of his sister Mary and never got married. In his essays, he depicted the happiness sorrow, comedies and tragedies of human life. He is also known as "The prince among english Eassiyist".

Work

1. Tales of Shakespeare
2. Last Eassy of Elia.

its origion from emotions recolected in tranquality"

2) Critique of the progress

Romanticist view urbanity and industralization in a largely negative light. Many romantic author understood the imperlant of progress, but critized the way it impacted the common people the chasm b/w rich and the poor was widening every day. Many romantic writer despicted the ugly side of urbanization & commercialism and used their writing to argue for social change in England.

3) Nostalgia for the past used their writing to remind everyone of what the past had to offer and how far society had move away from the good old days.

4) Subjective Truths

Romanticist believe that truth could be discovered in nature & imagination. Self expression was seen as the way to achieve

Date:_____ Day:_____

2) William Hazitt

He was a man of strong opinion. He was straightforward while making Judgment and was never afraid to offend anyone. B/c of his blunt and aggresive nature most of his friend left him. and he was dying only Charles lamb was with him. Hazitt was fearless and unbothered by what other think of his work b/c of his quality he was able to achieve the excellence in essay. His style of prose was light and simple. He wrote many volumn of essay.

WORK

Table-Talk
Character of Shakespeare's play
The spirit of the age

16

Thomas - De Quincey

Thomas De Quincey is often known as the intellectual writer whose ideas were wide. He was the writer who wrote about the reaction and rebellion of the

that can deeply affect the human spirit.

Important works

1) Tintern Abbey
2) Lines between in early spring.
3) The prelude
4) Daffodils.

2) S.T Coleridge

Coleridge is known to be contemporary of wordworth though he is also known greatly by his supernaturalism as compare to wordworth's naturalism. He made supernaturalism his unique domain. His poetry often touches the emotions and grace, many of them have profound details of natural scenes.

Famous work

1) The Ancient mariner
2) kubla khan
3) Christabel.

Day:

Child labour

widespread exploitation of children in factories and harsh condition and low wages.

Descrimination against women women faced descrimination, limited job opportunities and poor working conditions

Division of Class

gap between bourgeoisise (factory owners) and proletrait (worker) fueling social tension.

Characteristic:-

1) Emotion and passion

The Romanticists were deeply in touch with their feeling - fear, awe and herror. In stories written by Romantic writers, Character often focus on the more sentimental side of the story including their inner struggle, dreams and passions.

Wordsworth said that poetry began as "the spontaneous overflow of powerful feeling. It take